HALF MOON BAY HOST AT BIG COUNTY CELEBRATION

HALFMOON BAY, July 3—For Fourth-of-July hosts the citizens of the coastside are without rivals. The three-day festival at Halfmoon Bay was one of the grandest celebrations ever held in the county and the good citizens of the sister cities who were not at old Spanishtown have heard with regret the thrilling accounts of the fiesta from those who had the good fortune to attend.

This is the second year that the coastside has entertained the county on Indepencence Day and its past success bids fair to make the celebration at Halfmoon Bay and the towns along the ocean shore an annual event.

A street parade Friday night put the rounds of gayety in revolution. It was followed by a dance in the Cunha hall where bells and beaux from the ocean shore and bayside whirled away hour after hour to the rhythmic dictate of Terpsichore.

Before the echoes of the last waltz strain had been carried away by the soft sea breeze, a salute was fired from Fort Halfmoon Bay, announcing the dawn of the Fourth.

At 10:30 the street parade began to move before the throngs that lined Kelly avenue, Purissima street, Main street and other arteries along the line of march.

A military organization and band executing formal movements at the command of Grand Marshal J. M. Francis and his aids led the procession. Then came beautiful Minnie Miguel, the queen of the festival, riding in an artistic float. After her came the Goddess of Liberty float, with Miss Annie Savage of the Halfmoon Bay Union highschool as "Liberty." "Uncle Sam," Mr. Ross; the Pioneers—Adam Simmons, Jim McCormick of Pescadero, Mrs. Wyman, the oldest pioneer in the state who came across the plains and rode up Market street in San Francisco in 1847 and was the first woman to ride in the old stage coach which was taken off the vessel which was wrecked off Pigeon Point and was used in the Portola parade in San Francisco; Jim Hovias, Robert Savage, George Schultz, Payne Grainger and John Pitcher.

The great throng of people assembled at the highschool grounds where the exercises took place. Professor A. M. Croop who presided, delivered a short address of welcome.

District Attorney Swart of Redwood City delivered a stirring address. There were musical numbers, the reading of the Declaration of Independence and the innvocation by Rev. Father Andriano.

On Sunday the excursionists visited Farallone, Moss Beach, Princeton and other coastside towns at mussel bakes and picnics.

The fete owes its success to the untiring efforts to the coastside boosters who had the celebration in charge and who spent months in preparing for the pleasures of their guests. The officers of the organization are: President, H. C. P. Morse; secretary, A. M. Croop; treasurer, A. S. Hatch; members, C. P. Mosconi, chairman; J. J. Gomes, J. A. Flink, Geo. Dunn, William Mowry and Fred Vallejo, to which committee was later added the names of Mrs. J. M. Francis and Mrs. H. T. Ross.

Large tract of land in southern Oregon now open for settlement. Good climate, rich soil, irrigation unnecessary to raise the finest crops. For large map and full information and instruction, send $1.50 to John Keefe, Corvallis, Oregon, two years a U. S. surveyor and timberman. An opportunity to get a good fertile, free homestead, near small town and railroad. adv't

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

For U. S. Senator,
SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE.

For Governor,
JOHN D. FREDERICKS.

AN IDEAL CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR

It is evident that Samuel M. Shortridge's candidacy for the Senatorship meets with the public approval. On all sides are heard the most favorable comments on the San Mateo county candidate. It could not be otherwise, for Mr. Shortridge's record is one to recommend him to all classes of citizens. He is a true American of a high type, for he has worked his way up in the world and acquitted himself with credit in every walk of life he has trod.

As to Mr. Shortridge's qualifications for the position of United States Senator, it can be said, honestly and truly, that he would grace it by his talents and reflect great credit upon our state where his life work is being done in a manly and honorable fashion, so that no one can impugn his just claims to high public office.

To Mr. Shortridge's credit, be it said that he has never been a seeker of political favors. His loyalty to his great political party has amounted to devotion. In every important campaign he has traversed the state and addressed the citizens of every county in California, and yet with all his claims to consideration he has preferred the private station to public office.

RETURNING TO THE OLD CAMP.

Official figures of recent elections, primaries and registrations in different parts of the country reveal sweeping Republican gains and corresponding Democratic and Progressive losses. A careful analysis of these figures, just completed, shows unmistakably the trend of political sentiment from Maine to California. The swing back to Republican victory is on.

The figures show that the condition that resulted in the election of Wilson is wped out and that the readjutsment has been favorable to Republican party in every instance. The total vote in primaries and congressional elections was, in most cases, less than that in the Presidential election two years ago, but even in these instances the Republicans gained. In the Seventh District of New Jersey, the total vote in the Congressional election fell away 40 per cent, yet the Republican gain was 98 per cent over 1912. In the Second Iowa District, the decrease in the total vote, compared with 1912, was 38 per cent, yet the Republican gain was 27 per cent. In the Senatorial primary in Pennsylvania, the total vote was forty-nine per cent less than the total vote in the Presidential election two years ago, but the Republican gain was 21 per cent.

One of the most significant of the returns is that of the Minnesota election for Governor, in which the Republican gain was 203 per cent, in spite of the fact that the total vote was 27 per cent less than the vote for President in 1912.

THE JUDICIARY IS NOT IN POLITICS

The Legislature of 1913 by enactment separated the judiciary of the state from politics. In taking this step the legislature merely legalized what had been the will of the people for many years. In most of the counties of the state it had been the custom in selecting material for the Superior Judgeship to disregard party affiliation entirely. Men were chosen who were deemed most fitted for the office and not for the reason that they were of this or that political creed. As an evidence of the strength of this determination on the part of the voters it is found that in those counties where a certain political faith predominated men of the opposite belief were elevated to the Superior Judgeship and kept there a lifetime. Instances of this custom are so numerous that it is needless to mention specific cases, but we might cite our own county, whose Judge has held office for a quarter of a century, not because of his political affiliation, certainly, but because he has filled the office with honor to himself and to the people whose confidence he enjoys.

The legislative enactment has simply crystalized into law what heretofore has been strong sentiment. The judiciary is not required to descend into the mire of politics. And why should the ermine of Justice be soiled by such contact? The administration of the law of the land is of a character too sacred to be tainted by the influence of filthy politics, robbed of its dignity and often corrupted.

Since the judiciary has been removed from politics, first by the people and later by the people's law-making body the Legislature, the Times-Gazette feels that it can consistently fall into line and support for Superior Judge of this county the man most fitted for the office—George H. Buck—whose years of faithful service and ripe experience entitle him to the reward of re-election. We ask our readers to rally around the standard of Judge Buck and assist in making his majority as nearly unanimous as possible.

Motor and other traffic on our section of the new State Highway has already assumed remarkable proportions.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Miss Luella Behrens is in Berkeley, where she has enrolled at the summer school sessions.

Redwood City lodge, F. and A. M. will hold a special meeting this Saturday evening for work in the second degree.

Joe Edgar, son of the late John C. Edgar, was a brief visitor in this city Tuesday. He has a position in the prison at San Quentin.

C. G. Landscheit returned last evening from an extended business trip through the State of Nevada.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Waller of this city last Monday. The happy parents are very proud of the youngster and predict big things for her.

Philip K. Prior, one of the oldest principals in point of service in San Francisco, was here Wednesday. Mr. Prior formerly lived here and was chairman of the Democratic County Committee from 1880 to 1884.

The jury in the case of H. Jacoby and B. Heskins failed to agree in the recorder's court yesterday afternoon and were discharged. The defendants were charged with violating a town ordinance which makes it a crime to sell goods below cost.

The San Mateo Development Association needs the good will and backing of the people now more than ever. Were its services in the past forgotten the public would indeed be lacking in appreciation, and were its work as outlined for the future unheeded the county would be neglectful of its most important interests. The people cannot afford to allow the association to become powerless from lack of assistance now that its work is only partly done.

An Extra Big Special.

Admirers of high class motion pictures will be afforded a splendid attraction in the extra special program at the Bell theatre Monday evening. As a feature of the program Manager Nathhorst has secured the Famour Player Film Company's production, "An American Citizen," with John Barrymore in the leading role. This is one of the best modern comedy-romances, full of intrigue spiced with comedy situations. For this night the prices will be 10 and 20 cents. On Tuesday evening the star feature will be a continuation of the serial sensation, "The Adventures of Kathlyn," at popular prices. As usual there will be a change of program each night.

CLARK & HENERY EMPLOYE IS PAINFULLY INJURED

Joseph Westberg, a workman employed at the asphaltum mixing plant of Clark and Henery, the contractors, near the Southern Pacific depot, was painfully injured Tuesday by a heavy pipe which fell, striking him on the back. He was hurried to the Red Cross hospital at San Mateo for treatment. Yesterday it was given out that while his injuries were painful, there was no great danger of serious results. Westburg came from Sacramento. He is 45 years old and has a wife and seven children. His 14-year-old son Fred was visiting him when he was hurt.

The Clark and Henery Company is getting its plant in readiness to finish its contract of paving the Woodside road.

Must Dim Auto Lights

An ordinance was presented to the Board of Supervisors Monday to compel owners of automobiles to dim their electric headlights while operating their machines in San Mateo county. The new law was framed by District Attorney Franklin Swart, following the tragedy on El Camino Real near Belmont, three weeks ago, when the car driven by Robert Y. Hane, the golfer and clubman, killed two motorcyclists. The ordinance is being considered by the board and may be passed at the next meeting.

Union Church Services

Next Sunday the Methodists and Congregationalists will begin the regular summer union services. The 11 o'clock morning service will be in the Congregational church and the 8 o'clock evening service will be in the Methodist church. The public is cordially invited.

Episcopal Services at Woodside

Tomorrow at 9 a. m. there will be Episcopal morning prayer and sermon by the Rev. David Crabtree at the Woodside Congregational church. A welcome is extended to all.

Albert Pissis Dead.

Albert Pissis, the well-known San Francisco architect, owner of the former Dingee home near this city, passed away Sunday. The deceased was a native of Mexico, aged 62 years, and is survived by his wife and daughter. During his lifetime he had designed some of the finest buildings in San Francisco.

Tax Collections Were Good.

Being charged with collection of $569,594.25 for state and county taxes on October 4th, 1913, Tax Callector A. McSweenew has turned into the treasury the sum of $554,970.85, leaving the smallest delinquent balance in the history of the county, compared with the assessed valuation and the amount charged against him. This speaks well for the efficient and accommodating Tax Collector, when we realize that the strenuous work that has to be performed in the office owing to the increased number of assessments in the county, and that Mr. McSweeney is allowed but two deputies by the State for but four months of the year, as his assistants. The efficient handling of the affairs of the Tax Collector's office, accounts, no doubt, for the fact that Mr. McSweeney has no opponent for this important office.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT CLUB DIECUSSES BOY PROBLEM

Last Wednesday night at the gymnasium about thirty men and boys met for the second session of the Wednesday night club The Rev. David Crabtree presided. The general subject for discussion was "What shall we do for our boys in Redwood City?". John D. Gish spoke on "Our duty to our boys." The keynote of his excellent speech was thatt the community owed a fostering care to the boys as an investment for the returns in good citizenship. "One of the best means for the development of strong, sane young men," said Mr. Gish, "is to furnish an opportunity for the boys to work off extra steam in healthy play. Such is the purpose of this gymnasium. Prof. S. P. McCrea followed with a particularly practical talk on "The uses to be made of the gymnasium for the boys." He stressed the need of a physical director to hold classes for all ages from one to four nights a week. The suggestion to hire a Stanford student for director was made, the pay for whose services would be met by charging a small fee upon the members of the classes and by small yearly subscriptions from public-spirited citizens.

Prof. McCrea, M. J. Knox, Wilber Doxsee, Earl Eikerenkotter and Lisle Winter were appointed a committee to confer with the ladies committee of the gymnasium and to work out this plan.

Next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the club meets again to organize, to hear the report of this committee, and to listen to speeches by Lisle Winter, Ray Griffin and and others. It is the intention to make this club a permanent organization for literary and conference purposes, somewhat in the nature of a "town meeting, where every man or boy can say his say without fear or favor." Every man between the ages of eighteen and a hundred is urged to come next Wednesday night.

Surveyor and Teacher Wed.

The bride has the distinction of being the first teacher to establish an open air school in California. While employed in San Diego she taught her pupils under the blue canopy of heaven for a whole term. This system has been adopted by any districts throughout the state and the time is not far distant when it will be universal. Mr. Van Ingam is superintending the construction work of the new Middlefield road. While engaged in similar work at San Gregorio last year he met his bride and the happy romance began there, culminated last week when the young people were married.

COUNTY EXPOSITION BOARD CALLS FOR FLOWER BIDS

At a meeting of the San Mateo County Fair Commissioners Monday the secretary was instructed to advise the nursery men of San Mateo county that the commission would like to have plans for pot-grown plants and cut flowers to be used as the San Mateo county exhibit at the fair of 1915. Since the fair opens on February 20th, and closes on December 4th, a variety of plants and flowers, both pot grown and cut will be needed, invoiving quite an expenditure of money which would seem to appear attractive to the nursery men of the county. A question that the commission wants to decide, is, should they arrange with a nursery for the growing of the plants desired, or should they rent a tract of land and grow these plants themselves. It is up to the nursery men of the county to get busy. The commission meets on the 20th instant at the commissioners' office in the courthouse. Communications addressed to the Executive Secretary, box 26, Redwood, will receive prompt reply.

New Actions in Superior Court.

E. A. Husing has commenced an action in the Superior Court against E. A. Clark and others to quiet title to 710 acres land near the Greer lands back of Woodside. The property was formerly owned by the late Eliza Greer who died in 1883.

O. H. Heynemann, proprietor of the Lees Secret Service Bureau, has brought suit in the Superior Court against Loren Coburn, the aged Pescadero millionaire, to recover the sum of $5000 for services rendered within the past two years. The suit is the outgrowth of the Coburn incompetency case recently tried in San Francisco at which time Coburn was restored to capacity. During the trial the plaintiff was employed to do detective work for defendant. Mr. Coburn has refused to pay the claim. His property has been attached by Heynemann.

A. J. Bradford has brought an action in the Superior Court against George W. Gates and wife to secure damages in the sum of $2,500 for a breach of contract. In March of this year an agreement was entered into between Carl Schilling and H. H. Owens whereby defendants were to lease their premises at Burlingame to Carl Schilling for a period of fifteen years at a monthly rental of $325. Defendant agreed to erect a building on the property costing the sum of $25,000. The defendants have failed to keep their agreement and to comply with the terms of the lease. Plaintiff asks for the sum of $100, the amount paid to bind the agreement and the sum of $900 expended in preparing plans and specifications for the proposed new bulding and for damages in the sum of $2500, making a total of $3500. Some time ago the claim of Schilling and Owens was assigned to A. J. Bradford who brings the action.

JUDGE BUCK DECIDES THE McGREGOR DIVORCE CASE

Judge Buck on Thursday rendered a decision in the case of Gustav J. McGregor against Emilie McGregor. The case was begun by McGregor some months ago. It was argued last week and submitted to the court for decision. Shortly after the suit was filed by plaintiff, Mrs. McGregor filed an answer and cross complaint. The case was bitterly contested. Ross and Ross appeared for McGregor and Attorney Barry of the law firm of Sullivan, Sullivan and Roche of San Francisco represented defendant. The parties to the action are prominent in social circles in Burlingame, Mr. McGregor is an ex-mayor of that city. The following decision will be read with interest:

"This is an action for divorce and the complaint contans two counts: The first count being upon the ground of extreme cruelty and the second count being upon the ground of habitual intemperance. The defendant enters a denial of the charges of both counts and files a cross complaint charging cruelty as the grounds upon which she asks for a divorce.

Happily there are no interests of children involved in this action and the property rights are inconsequental. Taking up first the defendant's cross complaint and giving the evidence in support thereof due consideration, I find that there is not sufficient corroboration of defendants testimony to warrant he court in taking an action. Her evidence upon the acts of cruelty charged by her is not only weak but is unsupported by any sufficient evidence and hence her prayer for an interlocutory decee will be denied. The second cause of action in plaintiff's complaint upon which he seeks to obtain an interlocutory decree is that of intemperence. While I am constrained to find from the evidence that a large quantity of intoxicating liquors were used at the residence of these parties and while it will not be necessary for me to give my views as to what disposition was made of that liquor, yet I shall hold that the evidence presented will not warrant me in taking action in this matter and hence under the second count no relief will be granted. The first cause of action in the complaint part of the defendant and outside of the corroborating evidence upon that point, the defendant admits certain acts of cruelty in her testimony, giving as her excuse for these acts that she was forced to do or commit the acts complained of in necessary self defense. With this position of the defendant, I do not agree, but am constrained to hold that the acts of cruelty set forth in the first cause of action in plaintiff's complaint, are fully sustained by the evidence and plaintiff will be granted an interlocutory decree under the first cause of action. BUCK, Judge.

Will Not Withdraw.

It has been rumored for some time that Judge S. C. Denson would withdraw from the contest for the judgship.

"I would not belittle my friends," said Judge Denson, when told of the rumor, "by being party to any such a plan, and the rumor is preposterous and untrue. I went into the fight at the solicitation of my friends throughout the county, and have made up my mind to become acandidate for the office of Superior Judge of this county, it would be a poor return for friendship and loyalty, to withdraw from the race. My nomination papers were filed this week."

Ernest N. Smith of Burlingame, chairman of the S. C. Denson campaign committee, likewise denounced the report of Dennson's withdrawal as untrue and expressed regret that this report had emanated from certain quarters.

"San Mateo county citizens are to be congratulated," said Mr. smith, "in having two such able and gifted men as Judge Denson and Judge Buck from which to choose their Superior Judge. Both gentlemen have sat upon the Superior bench, and our individual preference as to which oftehe two men should serve the next term does not detract from the reputation each man has made during many years of distinguished service as lawyer and judge. I say the citizens are to be congratulated when two such able men seriously present themselves to the public for consideration, and can positively say that Mr. Denson is in the race to stay."

SAD DEATH OF ASSESSOR HAYWARD'S GRANDSON

C. D. Hayward received a telegram from Seattle on his return from the celebration at Halfmoon Bay Saturday announcing the death of his little grandson, Richard Kalenborn, at Seattle on July 4th. The boy and his mother were visiting friends at Seattle when the little fellow was taken suddenly ill with diabetes and died in a few days. He was nearly five years old and a great favorite with all who knew him. Mr. and Mrs. Kalenborn left here last spring for the north, Mrs. Kalenborn intending to reside at Tacoma and her husband to spend the summer working his mining properties in the Klondike. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the community in their sad loss.

Hurt While at Play.

Carmelina Bianchi, the six year old daughter of Attorney Eugene Bianchi of this city, met with a painful accident last Sunday while enjoying herself in the play grounds of the grammar school. She was sliding down a sand chute when she was unintentionally pushed off by a playmate. She struck the ground on her head and sustained a deep wound on her forehead three inches in length. The little girl was taken to the office of Dr. Ross where the wound was sewed up. No serious results are anticipated by the physician. The little girl will not be disfigured.

MANY CITIZENS PRESENT; NOT ENOUGH TRUSTEES

An unusually representative assemblage of citizens met with disappointment Monday evening, when for want of a quorum of trustees, the regular session of the city council was not held. Evidently expecting the transaction of some business in which they were particularly interested, a goodly delegation of citizens interested in the business life of the city assembled in the lobby of the council chamber promptly at the hour of 8 o'clock and waited with what patience they could for the assembling of the city fathers. For nearly half an hour politics and other matters of present day interest were discussed as a pastime while awaiting the momentarily expected advent of the trustees. Finally, when the assemblage had about wearied of waiting, Clerk Plump, followed by Trustees Deleau and Tuchsen, silently entered the room and took their accustomed seats. With his usual gravity of demeanor Plump monotoned the roll of the trustees, and after receiving the reply of "present" from but two announced that there was no quorum and perfunctorily declared the session adjourned until the time of the next regular meeting. With this formality over, the two trustees in attendance departed as quietly as they had entered and the expectant citizens dispersed.

THE EAST versus CALIFORNIA

Most cook books are written in the East by cooking experts, who know nothing of California conditions.

In California there is such a great variety of fresh vegetables, fruits, fish and game, climate, and often the fuel used, that cooking is far different from that in the East. These are good reasons why a cook book entirely written by California women will be more practicable and every-day-useful.

Two hundred women users of CALIFENE, the best shortening, will write the thousand dollar cook book.

The next time you go to the store, ask the grocer about CALIFENE and how to get the $1000 Cook Book. Also how to earn $5 by writing a recipe.

If, for any reason, you cannot secure the blanks, write to
